

Cost Management in Azure

Capex → capital expense
(infrastructure, facility)
Opex → operational expense
(storage, computed VM, deployment)

- Resource Type → pay for the type of service based on location, when it's tracked.
- Consumption → 1 month - 10gb, 2nd month - 5gb } you pay based how much resources, a service you are consuming.
- Maintenance → VM-2 } maintain and track unless any resources that you are paying for and not using.
- Geography → based location, regions you are paying.
- Network traffic → data → another place
- Subscription Types Free, pay as you go
- Marketplace.

Basic, Premium

Microsoft Purview

1 Risk and compliance solution
Whatever platform of Microsoft you are using, Purview will help you monitor & manage your data.

↳ Protect data across clouds
↳ Identify risks and manage it.

2 Unified data governance

Azure ≈ AWS

↳ create entire data estate storage.
↳ Insights about how data is being used.

1000 user → 100mb [1st month]
20000 user → 1gb [2nd month]
Put alerts on a specific resource, if the limit has exceeded, it will give alert.

Cost alerts

Enterprise level

Alert (4,000,000) }
90% on 60%.

↳ Credit alert.
↳ Department spending quota.
100000, 50% on 75%. (Alert will come)

Planning - 50000
Immediate → 10,000
Rent (6hr) = 20,000
Groceries = 5,000 } Buffer 7,000
Entertainment = 5,000 }
Child = 10,000 } Buffer 1,000

Service Trust Portal

↳ check all the policies, initiative to secure your data.

Monitoring Tool in Azure

↳ how improve security, operational excellence, performance, reduce cost.
↑ threat, vulnerability.

Azure Service Health

↳ services to track health of application, resource you use.

- Azure status.
- Service Health
- Resource Health